

ESTONIAN FOR (FALSE)BEGINNERS

This is your chance to learn the Estonian language with a qualified teacher. The studies take place once a week on Thursday evenings or Saturday mornings in Kirchberg.

The length of the course is 10 times 1,5 hours. The course starts on November the 12th 2015 and lasts until January the 31st 2016 (depending on the chosen weekday).

By the end of the course the students are able to:

- greet people and introduce themselves
- give information about themselves
- fill in applications
- ask what the time is
- can provide information about the days of the week, months and years
- speak about their favourite activities and express dislike about the things they don't like
- order a taxi
- buy bus or train tickets
- speak about the daily routine
- tell about their family
- describe the appearance of other people
- read in the newspaper or internet job advertisements or information about travelling

Do not hesitate and register already today! Memory training and broadening of your mental horizon guaranteed.

Register here

The price of the course is 100 EUR (10 times 1,5 hours). Please make a transfer to LES account LU74 0019 2055 3919 4000 (BCEELULL) with a description "Language, participant's name".

Your teacher Tea Reinvald is a qualified language teacher from Tallinn. She graduated from Tartu University in 1989 as a teacher of Germanic languages and Estonian as a foreign language. She has a teaching experience close to 20 years and has lived in Luxembourg for 10 years. For the past 4 years she has been teaching Estonian in the European Court of Justice.